Natalie Klyashtorny

Natalie is Of Counsel to Nochumson P.C., where her practice focuses in business and commercial counseling and litigation and employment and labor law.

In addition to litigating in both state and federal courts, Natalie counsels and represents individuals and small and medium-sized businesses in commercial transactions, business disputes and with regards to their employment and work force issues.

Since 2015, she has been named by Philadelphia Magazine as a Super Lawyer in the field of Business Litigation, and, previously, in 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011 and 2012, she was named by Philadelphia Magazine as a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer Rising Star.

Natalie is active within the legal community, currently serving as Assistant Treasurer of the Philadelphia Bar Association. She had previously served a three-year term as an elected member of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Board of Governors from 2013 through and including 2015.

In 2005, Natalie served as the Chair of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division, overseeing numerous professional development and community service committees and authoring a monthly column on issues of relevance to the legal community. During her term in office, she created "Philadelphia 2020", an ongoing initiative to educate and involve the legal community in advocating for and implementing reforms to make Philadelphia a more attractive destination for businesses and individuals alike. She also previously served as Co-Chair of the Philadelphia Bar Association's City Policy Committee in 2008 and as Co-Chair of its Solo and Small Firm Management Committee in 2010.

Additionally, Natalie served as a voting member of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Commission on Judicial Selection and Retention, investigating and making recommendations regarding the fitness of candidates for the state judiciary, and is currently a member of the Investigative Division of the Judicial Commissions of both the Philadelphia Bar Association and Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Natalie is also a member of the Temple American Inn of Court, the Philadelphia Trial Lawyers Association and the Louis D. Brandeis Law Society, for which she co-chairs its Membership Committee.

She is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the State of New Jersey, the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and the District Court for the District of New Jersey.

Natalie received her undergraduate degree from American University and graduated from Temple University School of Law. While in law school, she was an Associate Editor of the Temple International and Comparative Law Journal.
